

ART MATERIAL MAP

This is a simplified diagram that explains that most, popular fine art products are made from pigment and one or two base ingredients. As you will see, many of the ingredients are natural; clay from the ground, wax from bees... the oil is usually from the linseed plant, the gum (arabic) is tree sap from the acacia tree and of course many of the pigments are refined from a wide variety of natural sources.

