Country Landscapes in Watercolour

by Terry Harrison

People who want to learn to paint without relying on their drawing skills have everything they need in this book. Terry Harrison has painted five beautiful country scenes, from an open gate leading to a farm, a country church next to a bluebell wood, spring blossom reflected in a stream, a snow scene and a bridge over a ford in an autumn wood. The tracings and clear step-by-step photographs explain the painting process in great depth and make it easy for readers to reproduce all of the projects.

1) Lovers of traditional rural paintings will want to reproduce the five typical scenes in the step-by-step demonstrations. □2) There are six tracings to pull out so that readers do not need to rely on their drawing skills □ one for each of the five demonstrations and one bonus tracing. □3) Terry Harrison's accessible teaching style makes it easy for readers to reproduce five beautiful paintings that typify everything we love about the country.
